

A woman with reddish-blonde hair styled in an updo is the central figure. She is wearing a dark, possibly black or deep navy, gown with intricate lace or floral detailing. The gown is sleeveless and has a full, voluminous skirt that trails on the floor. She is posed in a three-quarter view, looking towards the right of the frame. Her right arm is extended slightly, and her left hand rests near her waist. The background is a dark, solid color, possibly a studio backdrop, with a lighter grey floor. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the texture of the dress and the woman's features.

OUT OF TOWN

Sometimes what you need to do is find your way at a distance from the bright lights. The heave and arrest of life in the city thrills with energy and a sense of doing, but the idea of pursuing and taking needs to balance with something much more rare – a celebration of nothingness, of stillness, of peace. Located across the globe there are some resorts and hotels that honour and observe this effusion. Places where time, space and freedom are the commandments of the day. Blessed are these who see its value and gently reach for its offering.
