MESA VERDE NATIONAL PARK

Mesa Verde National Park A short 1.5 hr drive from Dunton is the home of the Ancestral Puebloans, previously referred to as “Anasazi”. This archaeological preserve offers you the chance to visit the mesa and cliff dwellings as a way of experiencing a very unique style of life from 750-1300 AD. Climbing ladders, navigating narrow tunnels, and ascending some steps of altitude, our two most popular visits include the Cliff Palace (largest cliff dwelling in Mesa Verde) and the Balcony House (most challenging cliff dwelling accessible to visitors). Walk through history in the park’s museum to learn more about the evolution of architecture, from Pit Houses to Pueblos on the Chapin Mesa Loop drive. Embark on a longer distance adventure out to Wetherill Mesa (only open in the summer), which leads to the Step House and Longhouse (hosting the longest seep spring)... hike the Petroglyph Point Trail or Spruce Canyon Trail. It’s your day, so your driver is happy to speak with you about what you would like to experience during your visit to the park, to best utilize your time.

Full Day $200 per person (Available Early April to Mid October)

Trip includes a packed lunch, snacks, beverages and transportation

*Recommended: Seasonally appropriate layers, sturdy shoes, brimmed hat, sunglasses, water bottle, camera and sunscreen.

ROCK CLIMBING

Via Ferrata A via ferrata (Italian for "road of iron") or klettersteig (German for "climbing path") is a mountain route which is equipped with fixed cables, stemples, ladders, and or bridges. The use of these added elements allows otherwise isolated routes to be joined to create longer routes which are accessible to people with a wide range of climbing abilities. Tellurides Via Ferrata is a thrilling technical hike along the east end of the Telluride canyon, offering spectacular views of Bridal Veil Falls and the Telluride Valley. This is a unique adventure and our guide service supplies you with knowledgeable guides and top of the line equipment.

Full Day $400 per person -or- $250 per person for 2+ people (Available Early June to Mid October)

Rock Climbing Designed for all ages and abilities, from 4 year-olds to seasoned mountaineers, these trips give you the chance to try out your spider skills on real rock. Even if you've never entertained the idea of getting vertical, consider this – we offer comfortable first- time climbing experiences for even our most timid guests. Using harnesses, ropes and technical climbing equipment, you can explore the vertical realm with the assistance of a qualified and supportive guide.

Our full-day rock climbing adventures start at San Juan climbing area where we will embark upon a short hike up to a stone face. You will learn how to climb, belay and appropriately use technical equipment.
